

Jeff Co Rec Soccer VS JC Soccer Club

SO MUCH SOCCER!

This fall, families in Jefferson County have more soccer options than ever! Both the Jefferson County Parks and Recreation Department and the Jefferson County Soccer Club offer welcoming, community-centered soccer experiences for all players.

Jefferson County Parks and Recreation – "Rec Soccer"

The Rec Department's fall soccer program is open to players of all skill levels—no tryouts required. Teams are typically formed by age group and neighborhood. The focus is on having fun, learning the fundamentals, and building teamwork. Website; www.countyrec.com

- 1–2 practices and 1 game per week at HJ Carroll Park or Memorial Field
- Low-cost registration
- Parent volunteer coaches
- A great fit for newer players and families seeking a local, low-pressure option

Jefferson County Soccer Club – "Club Soccer"

Club Soccer also welcomes all players—no tryouts necessary. These teams play at the Grassroots level, focusing on skill development, team cohesion, and long-term growth. Players often stay with the same team year after year. Website; www.jcsoccerclub.org

- Games in Jefferson or Kitsap County
- Travel time up to an hour
- Emphasis on player development and consistent teammates
- Ideal for players looking to grow their skills and deepen their commitment to the sport

Bonus Opportunity:

The Club also offers Select League teams—a more competitive option with tryouts and increased travel.
